

The Mail Ego

By Terrence O'Flaherty

"When I saw Peter O'Toole for the first time in 'Lawrence of Arabia' thought to myself, now there's an actor who's going to be doing great things. What's become of him? Did he return to the desert?"

No. He hates camels. He's now in Italy filming a musical version of "Goodbye Mr. Chips" with Julie Christie. He has just finished Bernard Shaw's farce, "The Great Catherine" with Jeanne Moreau.

"What could possibly make Johnny Carson do that boring underwater monologue on Cyprus Gardens?"

An expense-account summer vacation in Florida.

"Is Barbra Streisand going to be successful in Hollywood?"

If she isn't, it's her own fault because she has had three choice roles. Hollywood's optimism can be seen in her rising salary: "Funny Girl" ($200,000); "On a Clear Day You Can See Forever" ($500,000); and "Hello Dolly" ($1 million). The end isn't in sight—even on a clear day.

"How on earth can we expect young people to respect the police when they're portrayed as such asses? An example is Puerto Rican police captain on 'The Flying Nun.' How could an idiot like that keep a job?"

His brother-in-law is Chief of Police.

"The TV documentary on Mike Todd was fascinating but was it true?"

As true as any personal tribute produced by a man's son and starring his widow.

Are Hollywood stars courteous enough to answer their fan mail?"

Only on their way up or on the way down. In between, most of them turn the task over to a fan mail agency which does little more than send out pictures and form letters. Of course there's always the chance that YOUR letter will be attractive enough to catch his secretary's eye.

"What has become of John Agar, Shirley Temple's first husband? Every time I see a picture of her I think of HIM?"

SHE doesn't, I'm sure. Agar appears frequently on TV. His latest role is that of a murderer in "Nightmare" on NBC's "Name Of The Game."

"Was the recent NBC political drama 'Certain Honorable Men' based on fact?"

NBC and author playwright Rod Sterling say that it was not but a resemblance might be found in the recent charges against Senator Dodds.

"Is it true that Ross Martin who plays the U. S. Secret Service agent on 'Wild Wild West' is ill?"

Yes but don't worry about American frontier diplomacy during his recuperation... CBS has dispatched a NEW agent to help Robert Conrad solve his problems played by veteran actor Charles Aidman. His first show will be on the air in late October.

"What has happened to 'pay' television?"

After 13 years of indecision and appeasement the Federal Communications Commission finally told Congress it wants to authorize Pay TV in areas where there are a minimum of four commercial stations and if they guarantee no commercials. But Congressional action is delayed until May '69 after which the House Committee on Interstate and Foreign Commerce will conduct its own investigation. A surprising number of Congressmen have commercial TV interests—which doesn't help pay TV any.

Area Nurses to Participate In Series of Workshops

South Bay Hospital will participate in a cooperative effort with El Camino College and other area hospitals in a workshop series for staff nurses beginning Tuesday.

The joint venture includes South Bay, Torrance Memorial, Little Company of Mary, and Riviera Hospitals. Five nurses from each hospital will attend the six-week session and follow-up training will be conducted by the in-service departments of each hospital at the completion of the course.

Instructors for the series are Mrs. Cathy Townsend, RN, and Mrs. Sally Lazar, RN, of the El Camino Nursing Department faculty.

Nurses enrolled from South Bay are Phyllis McFarland, Cheryl Hook, Patricia Hall, Elizabeth Trudell, and Louise Godbold.

Mountain Of Change Disappears

A vase filled with 6,000 pennies was among items stolen Tuesday from the home of Frederick Dietz, 33, of 23603-D Anza Ave. Total value of the take was estimated at $1,000.

Forcing a sliding glass door, burglars also took $200 in large change, a solar television set, a radio tuner, a turntable, and records, he said.

San Pedro Youth Held In Robbery

A 19-year-old San Pedro youth has been arrested in connection with the Sept. 18 holdup of Fruit Bowl Market, 23401 S. Western Ave., in which $400 was taken at gunpoint.

Booked Friday at Torrance Police Station was Christopher (Sandy) Haegen, 27479 Samuel Dupont St., San Pedro.

Witnesses at the scene of the holdup said two young men were involved in the robbery.

... Proposition 9

Stutsman said he does not believe proponents of Proposition 9 were "trying to create problems," but he added that they have.

HE ALSO said arguments that schools would be closed and that state water project would be halted are invalid. "We're going to survive (if Proposition 9 is approved), but it's going to cost us a lot of money," he said.

Stutsman also noted the state's Constitution Revision Commission is due to study Article 13—the revenue and taxation section—next year. He said reforms would probably be on the ballot in 1970.

"On the threshold of some real progress toward tax reform, we're faced with this piece of legislation," he declared.

Stutsman also said Proposition 9 will not provide real tax relief, but merely represents restructuring of the taxing program in the state.

IN RELATED remarks, Ron Cox, an aide to the State Senate Educational Finance Committee, told the superintendents that passage of Proposition 9 would "abolish school districts as taxing agencies."

Cox said that probably would lead to operation of the schools from Sacramento since money would have to come from the state. He told superintendents that the authority to tax was the foundation of local control of the schools and predicted that without that authority, there would be no need for local boards of education.

Among superintendents attending the session was Dr. J. H. Hull, of Torrance. Dr. Frank Mattox, assistant superintendent for business, also was present.

... Hospital

(Continued from Page 1) will not be completed until 1970, Mrs. Woolley noted, but "many plans and decisions affecting the management of the new hospital cannot be postponed."

THE NEW board will consist of 21 members, it was announced. Four positions were left vacant.

"We hope to fill these places later with outstanding civic or industrial leaders interested in good hospital planning for this area," Mrs. Woolley commented.

The new hospital, now under construction on Lomita Boulevard, will have 250 beds. Plans are to expand it to 375 beds.

Supervisors Laud Floating Museum

The California Museum Foundation and its subsidiary, the Museum of the Sea which is being developed aboard the Queen Mary in Long Beach Harbor, have been commended in a resolution adopted by the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors.

The Foundation and the museum were cited for recently announced "imaginative and creative" plans for the public attraction which is scheduled to open aboard the former luxury liner next September.

The resolution declared that the Board of Supervisors "salutes J. Howard Edgerton, chairman, and members of the Board of Trustees of the California Museum Foundation and the Museum of the Sea and its director, Les H. Cohen, Jr. for their vision, enterprise and determination, and expresses the wholehearted support of this board in this vital project."
